PRESENTS...

“SOARING” OVER L.A.

MUSEUM OF FLYING, FLIGHT PATH MUSEUM
& PROUD BIRD LUNCH

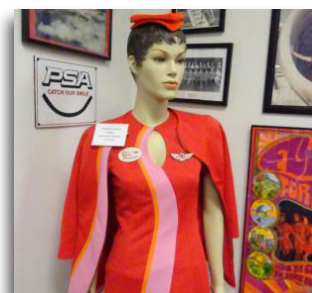

FRIDAY, JANUARY 25, 2019

Today we pay homage to our local aviation feats, from the past to present. Explore the history and evolution of aviation on a docent-guided tour of the Museum of Flying in Santa Monica. The museum features displays and interpretive exhibits on the history of flight and the development and growth of the aviation and aerospace industry in Southern California. You'll see nearly two dozen aircraft chronicling flight from its beginning with a replica Wright Flyer, all the way to the jet age with the BD-5 micro jet.

The Proud Bird, the aviation-themed restaurant located on the LAX flight-line that recently reopened after a multi-million-dollar renovation. The former dining room is now a food hall with a variety of food and beverage vendors offering diverse artisanal cuisine so you may “depart” on a culinary journey around the world. Enjoy lunch on your own within this open-air space featuring industrial accents to celebrate the power of flight and floor-to-ceiling windows that provide extraordinary views of approaching airplanes. Take time to explore the historic aircraft parked out back and relish in the sounds and sights of the aircraft making their final approach to LAX.

Visit the Flight Path Museum just south of LAX to view the spectacular airfield view and impressive airline memorabilia including the historic DC-3 on display.
